MEMORANDUM FOR: Chairman, Claims Review Board

THROUGH : Director of Logistics

SUBJECT : Claims Review Board Report for 1974

1. I have read with considerable interest your memorandum of 10 January 1975, which summarizes the activities of the Claims Review Board during calendar year 1974. It was a good, clear, concise report.

2. I was most impressed with the volume of claim cases, and the total dollar value involved. Undoubtedly many of these claims were quite complex, particularly those resulting from the [redacted]. Appropriate note has been made that there was a 21 percent increase in cases over 1973, while at the same time, Mr. Joseph [redacted] could devote less time to claims review work.

3. Please accept my thanks for a job well done, and also convey my appreciation to Board members, and the Claims Review Officer. Keep up the good work.
